Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory.

A. DUNBAR

HAS been very successful in completing several contracts for Door Frames, Doors, Window Frames and Sashes, and Blinds, for good living-houses and other buildings to be erected in city, the coming season. He has excellent workmen in his employ, and has superior facilities so that he is now able to supply to those who build the best articles of Door Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions and of superior quality, either for a single building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having the articles made at parties in that the pieces have only to put them in their place in the structure.

The business has now become so well systematized that only a small margin is left in knowing what the cost of a dwelling-house, while the work is uniform and of excellent quality.

Any one interested can examine specimens of work at the factory, near the Rose Place, or visit one of M. S. Jackson, on Exchange st., and either place any article may be obtained or quantities ordered.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856.

Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen: At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper-coated spikes, &c., without hesitation, say we believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.

We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.

Very respectfully yours,

(Signed) JOHN D. FARDY & BRO.

Sewing Machines.

To Clothiers, Tailors, &c

NOW IS THE TIME, during the dull season, and before the hurry of business, to introduce the Sewing Machines. An investment of $150 in a Sewing Machine will procure more profits than a much larger sum invested in any other way. Having settled all suits against our Machines, there is not a shadow of claim against them. The Excelsior and Dobson machines, both infringing our patent, we have prosecuted in the United States Courts, having jury trials in Equity and Courts, and we have come out triumphantly. Next the Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker, are expected to come on this month. We therefore caution the public not to purchase or use any of the infringing Machines, if they desire to escape litigation, for we shall claim our rights.

Sewing Machines.

The great and peculiar advantage of Singer's Sewing Machine is that

One Machine will perform every kind of work perfectly by simply changing the Needle and Thread; the machines are simple in their construction, strong, durable, and not liable to get out of order.

All who wish to purchase, and the public in general, are invited to call at No 41 Broad street, Bangor.

M., for the purpose of choosing three delegates to represent this District in the National Convention, to meet at the CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, on the Seventeenth day of June next, for the purpose of recommending candidates to be supported for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States.

The basis of representation which has been recommended by the Republican State Committee will be observed, as follows:—

Daniel Webster's views on the Slavery Question.

The Portland "State of Maine," of Monday, publishes the following extract from one of Daniel Webster's speeches in the Senate of the United States

Mr W says

"While I hold, with as much integrity, as much fidelity, and faithfulness as any citizen of the country to all the original arrangements and compromises under which the Constitution was formed, under which we now live was adopted, I never could, and never can persuade myself to vote in favor of the admission of other States into the Union as slave States, with the inequalities which were allowed and accorded by the Constitution to the slave-holding States then in existence. I do not think that the free States ever expected, or could expect, that they would be called on to admit, more slave States, having the individual advantages arising to them from the mode of apportioning representation under the existing Constitution.

Sir, I have never made an effort, and never proposed to make an effort, I have never countenanced, and never mean to countenance any effort to disturb the arrangements, as originally made, by which the various States came into the Union. But I cannot avoid considering, when it is put as a different question, when a proposition is made to admit new States, and, that they are allowed to come in with the same advantages, and in qualities which were agreed to in regard to the old. It may be said, that, according to the provisions of the Constitution, new States are to be admitted upon the same footing as the old States. It may be so, but it does not follow at all from the provision that every territory or portion of country may at pleasure establish slavery, and then say, we will become a portion of the Union, and will bring with us the principles which we have thus adopted, and must be received in the same footing as the old States. It will always be a question whether the United States have not a right to require that a State coming into the Union should come in upon an equality, and if the existence of slavery be an impediment to coming in on that equality, then the State proposing to come in should be required to remove that impediment, by abolishing slavery, or take the consequences of being excluded.

The question now is whether it is not competent for Congress, in the exercise of a fair discretion, considering all the circumstances, considering that there have been seven States added to this Union from foreign acquisitions, and as yet only one from which to prevent their increase. That is the question. I see no injunction in it. As to the power of Congress, I have nothing to add to what I said the other day. Congress has full power over the subject. It may establish any such rule and any such laws in the territories as in its discretion it may see fit. It is subject, of course, to the rules of justice and propriety, but there is no constitutional restraint.

I have said that I shall consent to no extension of slavery upon this continent, nor to any territorial slave representation in the other House of Congress. I have now stated my reasons for my conduct, and my vote. We of the North have already gone in this respect, far beyond all that any southern man could have expected, or could expect, at the time of the adoption of the Constitution. I repeat the statement of the fact of the cession of five new slaveholding States, out of newly acquired territory. We have done that which, if those who framed the Constitution had foreseen, they would have agreed to have representation have yielded thus far, and we have now in a House of Representatives twenty-three persons upon this very question, and the question, who are there only nineteen virtual representation of slaves.

Let me conclude, therefore, by remarking that, while I am willing to present this as showing my own judgment and position, in regard to this case, and I beg it to be understood that I am speaking for no other than myself, I am willing to offer it to the world as my own justification. I rest on those propositions. First, That when this constitution was adopted, nobody looked for any new acquisition of territory to be formed into slave-holding States. Secondly, That the principles of the constitution prohibited and were intended to prohibit and should be construed to prohibit any interference of the general government with slavery as it existed and as it still exists in the States

The next extract shows that that eminent Whig Statesman, Daniel Webster, went to the extent of saying that no MORE SLAVE STATES OUGHT TO BE ADMITTED INTO THIS UNION.

And that the State of Maine declares to be "the true constitutional Whig doctrine" on the subject, and "hopes" for a "NATIONAL Whig organization on this platform of Mr. Webster's.

At the same time the State of Maine talks about "the unexceptionable character of the Republican leaders in Maine, and the difficulty of union with them whose extreme views have already rendered the party to the dimensions of the old anti-slavery party."

In the name of common sense, we ask what is meant by this? The Republican leaders of Maine, and the Republican party of Maine, hold no more extreme views, than Mr. Webster himself proclaims in the very extract published in the State of Maine. Let us have "no more slave States," let this policy be firmly adopted—and the Republicans ask no more. They are at this moment willing to stand upon this position, which the State of Maine calls "the true constitutional Whig doctrine." Nothing more ultra than this—no claim of interference with slavery in the States can be found by the State of Maine in any resolutions or declarations of the Republican party of Maine—party which, instead of being "factious" in numbers, threw 65,000 votes last fall, and is at this moment far stronger

...The Ellsworth Fuss. A large meeting of the citizens of Ellsworth was held on the 25th inst, and a committee appointed to make thorough investigation of all the facts connected with the burning of the Catholic Church, and with other incendiary fires; to report at an adjourned meeting this week.

The meeting was addressed by a number of the citizens, and the strongest feeling expressed to search this matter out, and if the recent fires are traceable to incendiaries, and they can be ferreted out, that measures be taken to have them punished to the extent of the law.

The meeting voted to request the Selectmen to offer a reward not exceeding $500, but it was recommended to await the report of the committee

...Death of Dr. Warren. The Boston Advertiser announces the death of the eminent physician, Dr John Collins Warren He died in this city, at his residence in Park street, on Sunday morning, at 3 o'clock, in the 84th year of his age. He was widely known, both in this country and Europe, as one of the most skilful surgeons of the day.

Dr. Warren was the son of Dr. John Warren, no less distinguished as a surgeon, and was nephew of that martyr of the Revolution, Gen. Joseph Warren, who fell at the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17th, 1775. He was born in Boston on the 1st of August, 1778. He graduated, with distinction at Harvard College in 1797. Of his classmates there are now but nine survivors, among whom may be mentioned Hon Horace Binney, of Philadelphia, Rev William Jenks, D D, of Boston, and Hon Daniel Appleton White, of Salem.

Dr Warren died while sitting in his chair, of a disease of the digestive organs.

...A Good Hit. A correspondent of the Ellsworth American, alluding to the stampede of hunkers in the meeting-house on Fast Day, when some temperance doctrines were preached, tells a story of the Rev. Granville Rawson who produced a similar effect by his preaching on Cape Cod many years ago. The next Sabbath the Rev. gentleman preached from a text in the 7th chapter of John, 37 follows:

"And the people which heard it, being convicted by their own consciences, went out, one by one."

...Hon Charles Hoffman, of New York city died at his residence, on Thursday the 1st inst. Mr. Hoffman was one of the ablest lawyers and most brilliant orators in the United States; and was a distinguished Whig politician in former years. He was in Congress from 1836 to 1840, and held the post of U. S. District Attorney for New York, under President Harrison's administration.

He was the counsel of Robinson, the alleged murderer of Ellen Jewett, and his eloquence in his defence secured Robinson's acquittal.

PASSENGERS FROM PANAMA—THE MASSACRE The wounded passengers that arrived by the Empire City are all advanced in years One of them was cut down in the back by the robbers while in pursuit of his belt. He had on a sort of sheep skin shirt at the time, in which there were several small pockets, or purses, in which he had between $2,000 and $3,000 concealed. The hard earned savings with which he was returning to his family Those that wounded him discovered, and took about half of his treasure, and let him go, but he was immediately afterwards attacked by another lot of the bandits, and bleeded of every cent. Another of the passengers has a severe cut wound across his left arm; a third received severe blows and contusions on the head, and the fourth is also seriously hurt The passengers estimate that the Panamenos robbed the passengers and the railroad depot of some thing like $100,000 Had a short time been afforded to the Americans to prepare themselves, they would have been able to give a better account of the result. The outward and homeward bound passengers at the place, at the time, numbered about 1100, and had, it is supposed, among them, some 250 revolvers, but they were mostly intoxicated and in their drunken One mode of attack by the Panamenos was the collecting of stones and hurling them among the American passengers Considerable apprehension was entertained that an attempt would be made by the assailants to tear up the railroad which is not at all popular with very many not of the best kind of natives, who have benefited, heretofore, by passengers and money being detained, or rather not enabled to go quite so fast on the Isthmus. The scene of the riot as described as having been a fearful one, and women and children of the passengers, equally with themselves, exposed to the fury.—N Y Sun,

ARREST FOR A HORRIBLE CRIME—On the 16th ult., (as a correspondent informs us) a man on foot who professed to be on his way to Portland, when about four miles from Bridgton Centre, saw an old lady, in a field, and committed upon her person a most horrible outrage He then threatened that if she spoke any other word he was out of sight, he would return and shoot her, and started off She soon arrived at her house, and told her sorrowful story to her husband.—Complaint was immediately made before Joseph W. Paine, Esq. (Justice) of Bridgton, and a warrant issued. The whole town was excited, and many citizens started in pursuit. He was traced through several towns, but was not caught until last Tuesday, when he was caged in Fryeburg by Deputy Walcott, and taken to Bridgton He had his examination on Thursday before Justice Paine in the Town Hall, and was committed to the jail in this city for trial at the next criminal term of the Supreme Court Her name is William Smith He has been once in State Prison, "we are informed, for a similar offence, and was pardoned out, on a petition of his friends, and by advice of the officers of the prison.—Argus

BIG SALARIES.—W Lyon Mackenzie, member of the Canadian Legislature for the county of Haldimand, in presenting to the Upper Canadians reasons why they should dissolve their union with those of the Lower Provinces, had occasion to speak of the large salaries paid to officials in Canada. The Governor, Sir E Head, gets thirty one thousand dollars a year, his house rent and servant hire. The ten ministers get each six thousand dollars a year, six dollars a day during the session of parliament, and "immense patronage." The Engineer of the Grand Trunk Railway, has a salary of thirteen thousand dollars a year. Sir Casar Roney, agent for that work gets the same. Chief Justice Robinson has six thousand six hundred and sixty-six dollars per annum, five hundred dollars for travelling expenses, and a pension of four thousand four hundred and forty-four dollars whenever he shall see fit to resign. The Registrar of Illamilton, Dundas and Wentworth, (he is a ministers also) gets six thousand five hundred a year. The Registrar of Toronto and York get twelve thousand dollars a year. The Governor has a Secretary to whom the Canadians pay three thousand dollars annually for the pretence of quill driving.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT AND NARROW ESCAPE The New York Evening Post gives an account of a remarkable accident which occurred on the Harlem Railroad on Wednesday. The mail passenger train was proceeding at its usual speed, when the axle of the hind truck of the baggage car broke short off, and the truck was at once hurled back upon the first passenger car. It detached the first truck of this car, and the two trucks passed through its whole length, ripping up the floor and seats on both sides, and dislodging another truck. The three trucks were then hurled against the second car, detaching another wheel, and the four trucks plowed through the flooring of this car also, scattering seats and passengers in all directions. They were finally brought up by the third truck and the train was stopped, when the four trucks were found piled up in a heap in the end of that car. These two cars contained eighty or one hundred passengers, men, women and children, and marvellous to relate, with a single exception, not one of them received a scratch.

A BAD VISITOR TO THE PANAMA MURDER.—We understand that a telegraphic despatch was received in this city, yesterday afternoon, stating that Hardy Gove, an old merchant of Bath and highly respected citizen of this place, was among the victims in this affray. He was interred upon the day of all that he possessed, Mr. Gove had been in California for many years, and was on his way home via Panama.—Bath Times.

Correspondence of The St. Louis Democrat.

LAWRENCE, Monday, April 21, 1856.

It seems that the Administration party at Washington are trying to have Congress adjourn before the report of the Kansas Commissioners can be made to that body and the country. And the same party are at work in Kansas trying to get up a war in order to prevent the Commissioners proceeding in their investigation This Kansas business, say they, must not be brought to light until Pierce is renominated and elected our next President. If exposed sooner it will be used in the next Presidential campaign and doubtless insure the election of the opposition candidate to that office A President with nerve and courage, and the Kansas settlers at heart, will be nullifiers and every effort of Washington and Here to prevent Congress. However, we shall see how things is managed by interested parties.

WASHINGTON, May 6.

SENATE.—The morning hour was chiefly occupied in discussions relative to the proper location of the District of Columbia Armory.

The bill making appropriation for the construction of harbour works at Marquette, on Lake Superior, Northern Michigan, was considered.

Mr Cass said it was a dangerous coast, and the sudden storms rendered a harbor's refuge extremely necessary. It was only proposed to construct two of these works for 500 miles of coast.

Mr. Stuart remarked that the bill appropriated $30,000. There were 11 bills for harbors on the Lakes, surrounding the State of Michigan, but each called for only a small amount, in the aggregate less than the single appropriation for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi.

After further debate, in which the propriety of embarking all such measures in one bill was discussed, the Senate adjourned.

In HOUSE passed the bill making appropriations for consular and diplomatic expenses.

Mr Bennett of N. Y. from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting alternate sections of lands in Iowa to old railroads now in progress. He said three millions of acres had been granted to Missouri and Arkansas, each. This bill did not require more than half that quantity, and contained the usual restrictions regarding the rights of the U. S. The committee have other similar bills under consideration, and desire prompt action on this, in order to ascertain the temper of the House on the subject.

Mr Stephens made an ineffectual attempt to offer an amendment extending all the rights, privileges and liabilities heretofore conferred on Iowa to Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas, for the purpose of aiding the construction of a road from Vicksburg to Lecompton in Kansas, and granting public lands to the same extent and on similar terms and restrictions.

Mr Bennett said this addition would break down his bill.

Mr Jones of Tenn. moved to lay it on the table.

Lost, 46 to 95.

A substitute for the original bill recommended by the Committee on Public Lands for the same object, was then adopted, but the morning hour expired before final action.

Mr McMullen complained of a portion of Mr. Perry's recent remarks concerning himself.

Mr Perry explained, and Mr. McMullen declared himself satisfied.

Mr. Watkins occupied one hour in a personal explanation, defending his political position in Tennessee.

Mr Reed briefly replied. Adjourned.

New Hampshire American Council.

PLYMOUTH, N. H. May 6.

The New Hampshire American State Council assembled here to-day, and elected delegates to the Convention to be held in New York on the 12th of June. The Council passed strong Protestant and anti-Nebraska resolutions—endorsed the action of their delegates in seceding from the Philadelphia Convention of February last—and indorsed the nomination of Fillmore and Donelson, unanimously.

Massachusetts American Council.

BOSTON, May 6.

The American State Council met here this afternoon. 149 Councils were represented by 179 Delegates. On the second ballot Hon. Isaac Gibb, of Governor's Council, Fall River, was elected President, receiving 153 votes to 115 for Lieut. Gov. Benchley, Anti-Know-Nothing. The other officers of the Council were also elected by the party opposed to rescinding Filmore.

Mr Watts, of Medway, offered resolutions repudiating the nomination of Fillmore, and declaring in favor of a representation in the Know Nothing American convention. Amidst great excitement, the resolutions were laid on the table by a decided majority.

Mr Ely, of Newton, offered resolutions in favor of the American party rallying to save the State at coming election, allowing each member of the party to vote as he thinks best in Presidential matters.

A long debate ensued, during which the Hon. Mr Rhodes rep declared that the failure to nominate the present national nominations would destroy the American party in Massachusetts.

The announcement that New Hampshire had instructed Fillmore was received with cheers, hisses and hooses.

The resolutions are temporarily laid on the table, to be taken up at a later hour.

At 9 o'clock, the anti-Fillmore delegates left the hall, and are now in consultation at the Revere House. They will probably issue a call for a Convention to elect delegates to the New York Convention of June 12th.

Connecticut Legislature.

NEW HAVEN, May 6.

The Caucus of the opposition members of the House of Representatives, this evening, made the following nominations:—for Speaker, Hon. Mr. Hendrick; for Clerk, E. B. Trumbull and Isaac J. Bromley; for State Printer, Carrington & Hotchkiss. Senate Caucus—Hon. Lemuel W. Cutler, President, pro. tem. O. H. Platt, Clerk.

Philadelphia Election.

PHILADELPHIA, 6th

A few scattering returns from the precincts have been received, showing an increased democratic majority, and confirming the previous impression that Vaux, the democratic candidate for Mayor, will be elected. His majority will be large, but it cannot be known with certainty how large till near day light. The Common Council will also be democratic.

The New York Anniversaries.

New York, 6th.

The Seventh Anniversary of the American and Foreign Christian Union was held to-day at 10 o'clock, in the Broadway Tabernacle.—Rev Dr. Stevens occupied the Chair. The audience nearly filled the entire building.

The Treasurer's Report was read by E. Vernon, General Agent. The receipts for the year were $93,305, expenditures $676,679.

The Report of the Directors read by Rev Dr. Patton, gives the whole number of laborers connected with the Society within the year as 410, of whom 67 were in the home and 22 in the foreign field, being in the aggregate eleven more than in the year preceding.

Various resolutions were offered and addresses made by Rev J. P. Ipse, Dr Sutherland of Washington, Rev Dr Butchard, N.Y. Presbyterian, and Rev Dr Tyng.

ARNOLD'S COMBINED

FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN, AND NURSE-LAMP

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention, is now prepared to offer them to the public.

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose, as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather, and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling It is heated by an oil, alcohol, or fluid lamp, the flame of which is protected from every external object.

As a LANTERN, it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset, or get broken, and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness, it is of great advantage in keeping drinks or medicines warm, beside giving the light desired, and not poisoning in small quantities For sealing tea, it will be found very convenient, as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a fashion heat in the same length of time.

In fact, the various purposes to which this neat apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one No further description is required, as no one can misunderstand its general utility. To say any thing more respecting its desirableness, a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere the extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the secreting cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Bowdoinham, Maine.

FEBRUARY, 17th 1853

To Rev Walter Clark, Dear Sir—This is to inform you that I bought of you last fall a bottle of your Cough Mixture which I thought of great benefit to my wife She had been afflicted with a cough for two years—that bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev Jesse Hoyt, Lewiston Falls

REV. CLARKE—Every bottle of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me, I sold—and I have several applications for more As far as I have learned, all have been perfectly satisfied with the medicine One man, who had a cough rising standing attended with tightness of the chest and shortness of breath, so that he was laid aside from business, purchased one large bottle, and before he had taken one third of it, was perfectly cured, and has had no cough since He says it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly

JESSE HAYES

From Mr Fletcher Chuck, agent for North Dixmont, Maine

DEAR SIR—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place Several who had coughs of a year's standing and others who have been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture

From Mrs Hubbard, Thorndike, Me.

To Rev Walter Clark Dear Sir—I am certified that I have used one bottle of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness in the lungs I had previously taken several kinds of medicine, and had been under the care of several physicians, without obtaining the least relief, happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. I procured a bottle, which I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entire y cured
